Mr. Wolf:

a. Noted that in view of the reorganization he had been forced to "juggle" personnel ceilings in and between the various offices of the Agency; however, this action would not change the over-all personnel strength figure directed by the DCI.

b. Noted that he had talked with Mr. McNeil of Defense concerning reimbursement and there was "no problem" this year; however, he was going ahead with discussions on reimbursement to Defense as outlined by the DCI. In connection with obtaining Congressional approval to lift the restrictions now placed on CIA as to the number of retired officers of the Department of Defense who could be employed, the Director stated that Secretary Pace had agreed to recall to active duty any officers assigned to CIA who were compelled to retire by law until such time as legislation could be enacted to lift the above-mentioned restriction.

c. Referred to a cable from the Senior Representative, [redacted] and stated that the information contained therein concerning [redacted] in connection with CIA was incorrect, this individual was neither employed
